

DAYE BRAKE

CONSULTING

Results

- Founded and directed a public charter school in North Carolina with the mission to empower all stakeholders to be change agents in the school, the community and the world
- Decreased the number of behavior referrals by 40% as a middle school principal
- Established a positive, engaging and structured classroom environment that resulted in consistent favorable behaviors, minimizing my disciplinary referrals to less than 3 in my tenure as a middle school teacher

Experience

- Led over 300 staff members through the a culture transformation process and trainings for one of the most successful North Carolina charter schools serving underprivileged students
- Master of the "Get Better Faster" framework and Kagan Cooperative Learning, having used these models to transform classrooms
- Operates under Ruby Paynes, "Framework for Understanding Poverty"

Skills

- Building engaging adult learning experiences
- Implementing effective culture transformations, including school-wide routines and procedures, norms/expectations, rewards systems and engaging learning strategies
- Increasing positive change and growth in teachers and students.

Together, we can change the world.

TESTIMONIALS

"Ms. Brake coached one of our first-year teachers. The teacher has performed extremely well and attributes her success to the support she got from Ms. Brake as a first-year teacher."
~ Cheryl Turner, Superintendent of Sugar Creek Charter School

"Working with Daye Brake has set me up to be an amazing teacher for life. She is well educated and knowledgeable about what is best for students and how to coach teachers in making sure they are meeting student's needs. She has many different resources and coaching styles and she adjusts to what is best for the individual she works with. Honestly, working with Daye Brake has shpaed me to become the teacher I am today. With her support, I have improved student's test scores by more than 30% by applying her methods and strategies for success. She is all around an awesome coach."
~ Marquitta Howard, Teacher at Will Academy KIPP DC
